MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Investment Objective and Strategies

BMG BullionFund (the “BMG Fund”) invests in equal dollar proportions of unencumbered, fully allocated gold, silver and platinum bullion that is held by The Bank of Nova Scotia. The BMG Fund’s objective is to provide a secure and convenient method for investors seeking to hold gold, silver and platinum bullion for capital preservation, long-term appreciation, portfolio diversification and portfolio hedging purposes.

All physical bullion purchased by the BMG Fund meets the London Good Delivery standard as set out by the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA).

By investing an equal portion of the BMG Fund's subscription proceeds in gold, silver and platinum bullion, the BMG Fund should be able to effectively reduce its volatility while improving long-term returns. This can be accomplished because the value of gold is based primarily on its monetary qualities, whereas the value of silver and platinum is based primarily on their usefulness as commodities. During normal economic times, the commodity demand for silver and platinum should be higher than for gold, and the value of silver and platinum should typically outperform the value of gold. In contrast, if monetary demand increases, then the value of gold should typically increase faster than that of silver or platinum, although over time both silver and platinum should follow the price of gold. As a result, by investing in all three metals, the BMG Fund should be able to reduce volatility while improving long-term returns.

The economic factors that determine the price of gold, silver and platinum are also, in most cases, opposed to the factors that determine the prices of most other financial assets. Ownership of BMG Fund units, therefore, acts as a hedge against the volatility of other investments. Units of a class of the BMG Fund are not speculative, and are only intended to be one part of an investment strategy.

A small portion of the BMG Fund's assets (generally no more than 5%) may be held in cash to allow the BMG Fund to pay its expenses, and to facilitate any redemption of units of a class of the BMG Fund. The BMG Fund will not use derivatives or invest in securities or certificates of companies that produce gold, silver or platinum bullion. The BMG Fund will not invest in foreign securities, and does not hedge its holdings. The BMG Fund’s objectives and strategies did not change in the first six months of 2019.

Risk

The risks associated with investing in the BMG Fund remain as stated in the simplified prospectus dated November 27, 2018. The principal risk associated with investing in the BMG Fund is the fluctuating price of precious metals, as well as fluctuations in the relationship between the Canadian and US dollars. In addition, the BMG Fund will be subject to precious metals risk, non-hedging strategy risk and specialization risk. Our view of the BMG Fund’s risk rating was unchanged in the first six months of 2019.

Results of Operations

All monetary amounts are expressed in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

During the first six months of 2019, the net asset value (“NAV”) of the BMG Fund decreased 12.0%, from $117.1 million at December 31, 2018 to $103.0 million at June 30, 2019. The decrease was primarily driven by $12.9 million in net redemptions, $1.5 million in operating expenses and $4.5 million in unrealized losses on bullion investment, offset by $4.8 million in realized gains on bullion investment during the period. As at June 30, 2019, the BMG Fund’s bullion holdings were 30,653 ounces of gold, 1,770,928 ounces of silver and 10,482 ounces of platinum, compared to 35,862 ounces of gold, 2,034,225 ounces of silver and 10,407 ounces of platinum at December 31, 2018.

For the six months ended June 30, 2019, the NAV per unit of the BMG Fund’s Class A units decreased by 1.1% in Canadian dollars, but increased 3.4% in US dollars, while the NAV per unit of the BMG Fund’s Class F units decreased by 0.6% in Canadian dollars, but increased 3.9% in US dollars. The better performance in US dollars is due to the Canadian dollar appreciation of 4.5% against the US dollar in the first six months of 2019. Please see Past Performance for the performance data of other classes.

Daily average net assets decreased by 21.7%, from $139.5 million during the first six months of 2018 to $109.2 million for the same period in 2019. The decrease is primarily driven by net redemptions. Total expenses declined by 21.0%, because of the decline in average net assets.

During the first six months in 2019, the gold price increased by 12.0%, from US$1,278.30 on December 31, 2018, to reach a high of US$1,431.40 per ounce in June. The price declined thereafter, and closed at US$1,409.00 on June 30. The prices of silver and platinum followed a similar pattern. The silver price reached a high of US$16.08 per ounce in January, fell to a low of US$14.38 per ounce in May, and closed at US$15.22 on June 30. The platinum price reached a high of US$914 per ounce in April, and closed at US$818.00 on June 30.

Recent Developments

At the time of writing, gold is trading at a six-year high. This reversal of fortune is mostly driven by the battered equity markets continuing on the turmoil characterized by US President Donald Trump's re-escalation of the trade war between the US and China, and the prospects of a return to ultra-loose monetary policy by the Federal Reserve. While other asset classes do not like increased volatility, precious metals tend to benefit as heightened uncertainty increases the appeal of gold's and silver's safe-haven characteristics. There are few indications that the US-China trade war is going to end any time soon and, as a result, traders are flocking into more risk-averse positions as volatility continues to push higher.

Amid weak global growth and escalating trade tensions, on July 31, 2019, the Federal Reserve lowered interest rates for the first time since 2008 to help stave off the possibility of an economic downturn, and it has indicated the possibility of further rate cuts later in the year. The US is not alone; the European Central Bank, the Bank of Japan, and the central banks of various emerging markets are expected to follow suit and make changes to their monetary policy to accommodate for slower growth. Furthermore, central banks are increasing their gold reserves and decreasing their holdings of US Treasuries. Notably, Russia is stockpiling gold and is now officially the world's largest gold buyer. Higher gold prices will likely continue, as interest rates are at historic lows. They are likely to remain low due to the cooling economic outlook. Low interest rates lower the opportunity cost of holding non-yielding bullion and weigh on the dollar, thus making gold attractive to buyers.

A new uptrend in gold is clearly underway, but silver's performance has so far trailed gold's. This is evidenced by the gold/silver ratio, which has climbed above 90 and hit a new 26-year high this year. The gold/silver ratio is the proportional relationship between the respective spot prices of gold and silver, or simply how many ounces of silver can be bought with one ounce of gold. Typically the ratio rises during precious metals' bear markets (the gap between their values widens), and falls during bull markets (gold becomes less valuable in relation to silver, because silver is traditionally the more volatile metal). The gold/silver ratio is likely to remain historically high over the short to medium term due to economic and political uncertainties. However, by looking at the price behaviour of both metals over the past six-plus years, we can see that silver usually trails gold in the beginning stages of a precious metals bull market, yet eventually surpasses the total return of gold. Thus, historically silver's current lag is temporary, and gold's breakout is an indication that silver is officially on the launch pad and due to explode.

Explanatory Notes to Financial Highlights

Fund's Net Assets per Unit of each Class

(1) This information is derived from the BMG Fund's financial statements. In the period a BMG Fund or class is established, the financial information is provided from the date a particular class was first offered to the end of the period. The NAV per class presented in the financial statements does not differ from the NAV per class calculated for fund pricing purposes.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) in net assets from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the fiscal period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of opening and closing net assets per unit.

Ratios and Supplemental Data

(1) This information is provided as at the end of the period shown.

(2) The management expense ratio is based on total expenses for the stated period, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average NAV during the period.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents the total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of NAV during the period.

(4) The BMG Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the BMG Fund's bullion investments are traded. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the BMG Fund buying and selling all its bullion once in the course of the relevant period. There is no trading cost payable by the BMG Fund. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the BMG Fund.

Management Fees

Management fees are paid by each class of the BMG Fund to the Manager, and are calculated at the applicable annual percentage of the NAV of each class of the BMG Fund. The Manager provides, or arranges for the provision of, all management and administrative services for day-to-day operations, including providing fund and unitholder accounting, recordkeeping and other administrative services. A portion of the management fees paid by the BMG Fund is for trailer fees paid to dealers. The trailer fees are a percentage of the daily average NAV of the applicable class of units of the BMG Fund that are held by the dealers' clients. No trailer fees are paid with respect to Class C1, Class C2 and Class F units of the BMG Fund. The table below outlines the BMG Fund's annual management fees for the Class A, Class B2, Class B3, Class C1, Class C2, Class D and Class F units of the BMG Fund, and how those fees are split between trailer fees and portfolio administration.

	Class A	Class B2	Class B3	Class C1	Class C2	Class D	Class F
Management Fee	2.25%	1.49%	1.25%	1.00%	0.87%	1.50%	1.25%
Portfolio Administration Fee	55.6%	59.4%	60%	100%	100%	83.3%	100%
Trailer Fee (maximum rate as a percentage of management fees)	44.4%	41.6%	40%	0%	0%	16.7%	0%

Out of the management fees that the Manager received from the BMG Fund, the Manager paid trailer fees of $372,095 during the six months ended June 30, 2019.

Operating Expenses

For the six months ended June 30, 2019, the Manager did not absorb BMG Fund operating expenses, because the management expense ratios were below the expense cap. The decision to reduce operating expenses is made at the discretion of the Manager, and may be changed at any time.

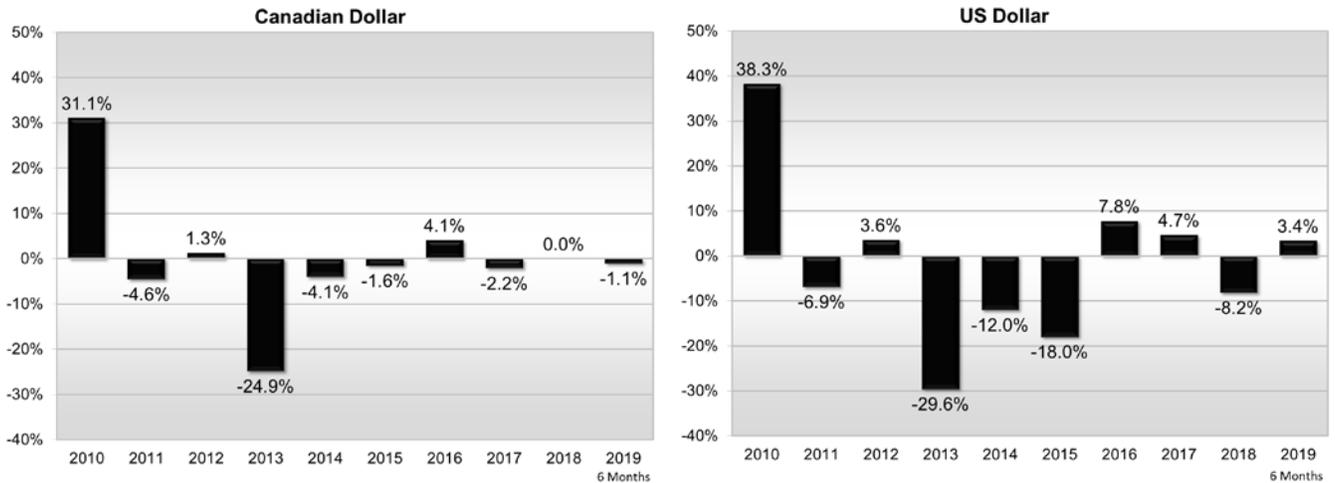

PAST PERFORMANCE

The following information does not take into account sales or redemption charges that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how the BMG Fund will perform in the future.
