How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund’s returns change over time. This is called “volatility”.

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

BMG Management Services Inc. has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium to high.

This rating is based on how much the fund’s returns have changed from year to year. It doesn’t tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund’s returns, see the “Investment Risk Classification Methodology” and “What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?” sections of the simplified prospectus applicable to the Fund.

No guarantees

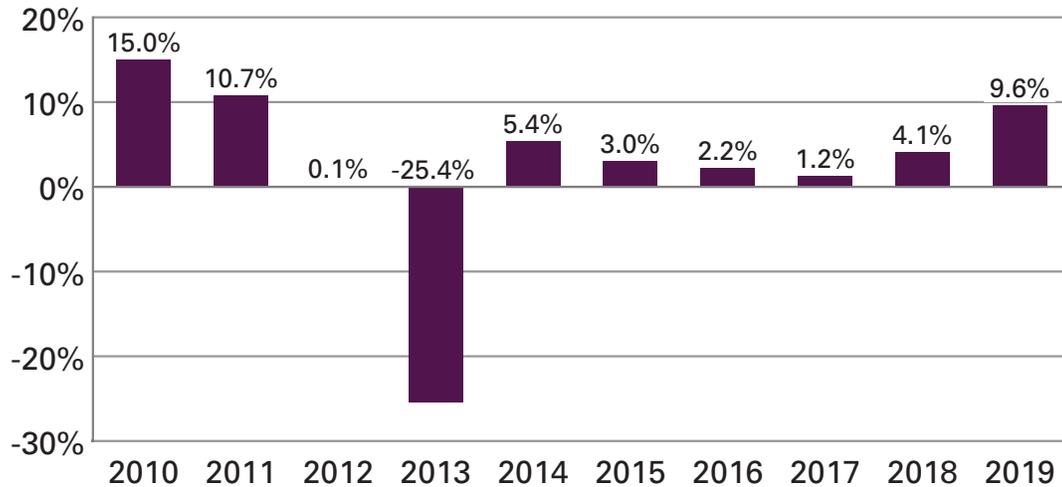

Like most mutual funds, this Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how the Class A units of the Fund have performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after fund expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Class A units’ returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how the Class A units of the Fund have performed for each of the past 10 years. The class dropped in value in one of the 10 years. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the Fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for Class A units of the Fund in a 3-month period over the past 10 years. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

| | Return | 3 months ending | If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period |
|---------------------|--------|------------------|--|
| Best return | 20.6% | January 31, 2015 | Your investment would rise to $1,206 |
| Worst return | -23.2% | June 30, 2013 | Your investment would drop to $768 |

Average return

The annual compound return of Class A units of the Fund was 2.9% over the past 10 years. If you had invested $1,000 in the Fund 10 years ago, your investment would be worth $1,328 as of October 30, 2020.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who want:

- Investments in a gold bullion only fund
- Capital preservation and long term appreciation in gold
- Portfolio diversification and hedging against the volatility of other investments. This Fund is not intended to be a stand-alone investment, and should not represent more than 20% of an investor’s overall total investment portfolio including any other bullion investments. Due to the fact that gold bullion typically has a low correlation to other financial assets, including it as part of an investment portfolio should generally reduce the portfolio’s volatility (i.e., which may help improve returns over the long-term).

⚠ Do not invest in this Fund if you need a steady source of income from your investments.

A word about tax

In general, you’ll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class A units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among classes of the Fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

You have to choose a sales charge option when you buy this class of the Fund. Ask about the pros and cons of each option.

| Sales charge option | What you pay | | How it works |
|-------------------------------|--|--|---|
| | in percent (%) | in dollars ($) | |
| Front-end sales charge | 0% to 5% of the amount you buy | $0 to $50 for every $1,000 you buy | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The front-end sales charge is deducted from the amount you buy and is paid to your representative as a commission when you buy the units. ■ You negotiate the rate of commission directly with your representative, up to a maximum of 5%. |
| Low load sales charge | If you sell within: 1 year of buying: 3% 2 years of buying: 2% 3 years of buying: 1% After 3 years: Nil | $0 to $30 on every $1,000 of original cost you sell | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The low load sales charge is deducted from the amount you sell based on the initial cost of the units. ■ BMG Management Services Inc. pays a 3% commission to your representative when you buy the units. ■ If you trigger a low load sales charge when you redeem, it goes to BMG Management Services Inc. |

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. As of June 30, 2020, the Fund's expenses were 2.96% of its value. This equals $29.60 for every $1,000 invested.

| | Annual rate (as a % of the fund's value) |
|---|---|
| Management expense ratio (MER) This is the total of the management fee (which includes the trailing commission) and operating expenses for Class A units of the Fund. | 2.96% |
| Trading expense ratio (TER) These are the Fund's trading costs. | NA |
| Fund expenses | 2.96% |

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the Fund. It is for services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you.

BMG Management Services Inc. pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the Fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

|-------------------------------|--|
| Front-end sales charge | A representative may receive an annual trailing commission of up to 1% of the value of your investment each year. This equals up to $10 each year for every $1,000 invested. |
| Low load sales charge | A representative may receive an annual trailing commission of up to 0.5% of the value of your investment each year for the first three years, and then up to 1.0% thereafter. This equals up to $5 for the first three years for every $1,000 invested, and then $10 for each year thereafter for every $1,000 invested. |

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the Fund.

| Fee | What you pay |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Short-term trading fee | Up to 1.5% if a redemption occurs within 60 days of purchase or switch. |
| Switch fee | None. Your representative may charge you up to 2% of the net asset value of any units of a class of a fund that you switch to the corresponding class of another fund for this service. |
| Redemption fee | See sales charge option above. Your representative may charge you a fee for this service. |

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- Withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- Cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase
